They knew they would never fit in at their new high school, full of children of the rich elites of the world. They knew once graduation came, they would have to leave the comforts of freedom and fight in the wars raging out of control, no thanks to their draft letters.they thought they had it all figured out. They thought they knew what was going to happen. they were wrong. Skye and Zach find themselves facing a new kind of reality, a reality that seems too insane to believe. Suddenly, their world is thrown into chaos and with a new group of friends, Skye and Zach find the courage to face the road ahead. Two new students, Miles and Cam, become Zach and Skye s closest allies in school and to their shock, a coming war none of them could have ever imagined they would be fighting in. Love and friendship is tested, while traitors are lurking in the shadows, passing information...
