The amount was not drawn against until it was paid. Q. Will you please state whether a draft of the California National Bank would have been honored by this bank? A. It would not. Cross-examination: The $25,000 note was given by Collins and Dare. 256 Redirect: Q From your knowledge of banking and customs of banking would you Itave been able to determine from the entry made by the bank alone, would you have been able to state from the entry alone that those special deposits were not to be drawn against by the California National Bank? A. Yes, sir; it was so stated there, in the entries that was given there it was so stated. William D. Bloodgood, sworn and examined as a witness for plaintiff: Direct-examination by Mr. Paige: 257 I reside in New York City. I have had ten years experience in bookkeeping. Paper produced by plaintiff s counsel shown witness and is marked for identification N. N. That paper beaded Explanation Sheet, is in my handwriting. I was employed by Mr. Pauly, the plaintiff in this action, to examine the books and papers of the California National Bank with a view to ascertaining the transactions of Mr. Collins with that bank. I was associated in such examination with Mr. A. A. Sparks, of...
