Copper Canyon Press. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Winter's Journey, Stephen Dobyns, "[Dobyns' poetry] has a somber, eccentric beauty not quite like anything else around these days."--The New York Times Book Review "[Dobyns] blends philosophical musings with daft, deft metaphors and a cheeky vernacular."--Poetry In extended prose poems, poet and best-selling novelist Stephen Dobyns employs everything from Atlantic seascapes to werewolf dreams to explore issues public and private. By turns tough and tender, Dobyns' plainspoken poems create and reflect a worldview full of possibilities. He contrasts the quotidian with the exalted, always delivered in a precise, familiar voice. Daily walks become meditations on politics, philosophy, literature, and the larger considerations of existence and being: Not so long ago Harvard's top poetry critic told meand a few others that she took pride in never oncehaving voted. It was hard to feel more than sad, but, to me, she vanished, she became a non-person, as ifshe had walked out on the human race, her writingsalso, since what truth could she say about poetry ifshe separated poetry from the world? Stephen Dobyns is the author of twenty-one novels, including the popular Saratoga crime series, twelve books of poetry, and a collection of nonfiction. Dobyns has worked as a reporter for The Detroit News and has taught at the University of Iowa, Sarah Lawrence College, Warren Wilson College, Syracuse University, and Boston University. He lives in Rhode Island.
