Almost fifty years of labor in the home and foreign field have convinced me that the earnest worker will receive, even now, a blessed reward. What will it be to hear the Master say, Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord ? The hope for the future of missions is brighter to-day than ever before, and with joy I dedicate this little volume to the Student Volunteers from whom I expect so much. Mrs. C. H. Wheeler. Rouse to some work of high and holy love, And thou an angel s happiness shalt know; Shalt bless the earth, when in the world above The good begun by thee shalt onward flow In many a branching stream, and wider grown, The seed that in these few and fleeting hours Thy hands unsparing and unwearied sow, She l deck thy grave with amaranthine flowers, And yield the fruits divine in heaven s immortal bowers.
