Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In his letter to the Romans, the Apostle Paul wrote that God has made himself known through the world He created, and that we are without excuse for not understanding His eternal power and Godhead, (Rom. 1:20). How did God reveal Himself in His creation, and what lessons can we learn by studying the natural world around us? This book explores the answer to those questions in a devotional form. Written as separate essays, each chapter concludes with challenging questions. Take this book, sit beside a quiet stream, and contemplate the things of God .
