Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A SIX-WEEK Advent devotional guide. Is your journey to Christmas usually filled with thoughts of wishing you could skip right past the season? Does your pace of life become so fast that you feel you are spinning out of control? Would you like to find a more peace-filled path on which you can journey this year? Then this is the book for you. We will begin our journey on November 11th and walk the ancient path of the early Celtic Christians. Traveling in the company of Saints, sinners and storytellers, you will be invited to embrace a new, yet old, approach to Advent. Together we will recover the map they followed and find the treasure they found: the treasure of Emmanuel - God with us. From Gordon MacDonald s Foreword: Should you choose to follow Jean through the Advent weeks, lighting candles as you go along, you ll find a set of uplifting and deepening reflections for every day. They are not burdensome or time-consuming. Each reading is designed to help us center our thoughts upon the true thrust of Advent. In this book there are rousing Celtic prayers: I bind unto myself the name, The strong name of the Trinity, By invocation of the same, The Three in One and One in Three . . . . There are wonderful stories: I was five years old, Jean writes, and Christmas was coming. You can t imagine what comes next as Jean reminisces on the generosity of God as understood through the eyes of a child. There are old hymns: Will your anchor hold in the storms of life, when the clouds unfold their wings of strife. . . Great Psalms ....
