Excerpt: .Gentlemen: I have been highly gratified by the letter which you have done me the honor to address to me in relation to the measures which I have taken to arrest the slave-trade in the waters of the Gaboon. I am happy, gentlemen, in receiving the sympathies extended to me by men who are so honorable, and who enjoy with such good reason the esteem of the inhabitants of the country. One of the principal objects of France in establishing herself at the Gaboon is to introduce civilization, and you are largely contributing to this work. Gentlemen, we shall regard as good compatriots and friends those who, like yourselves, conduct the natives in this path by their instructions and by their example, etc., -etc., etc. penang, Commander French Naval Division. CHAPTER XVII. Che tlaturalist XHscopertng the (gorilla. THE subject of this sketch was a child...

Completely essential read through publication. It normally does not expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
