In 1878 he became messenger in the train despatcher s office of the Lake Shore Michigan Southern Railroad at Buffalo. In 188o he was promoted to the position of night telegraph operator at Angola, New York, where he remained until 1882. The next two years were spent in attendance at the Buffalo State Normal School from which he graduated. In 1885, having won a state scholarship, at Cornell, he entered that University, but remained only until the end of his Sophomore year, at which time he became General Secretary of the Young Men s Christian Association at Corning, New York, and in 1889 General Secretary at Stamford, Connecticut. In September of that year Mr. Moody returned to Cornell and completed his course, graduating in 1891. From 1891 to 1893 he was Instructor in Histology in the Yale Medical School. In 1894 he graduated from Yale...
