Many of those I see befor me are buoyant with hope, as they should be, that they may in their day and generation do the State some servis, or at least lead honorable lives, and be in greater or less degree useful to their fellows or rememberd as leaving behind them memories of the best of a good man s life, those little nameless, unrememberd acts of kindness and of love. The start in life is of vital importance - a good beginning half the battle - and, keeping in mind that No gain is made where no plesure s ta en, it is unfortunate if either yung man or woman has to start and spend youth struggling against inclination. With wind and tide fair in your sail, nae dout you make fair seaway, But in the teeth o baith to sail, it makes an unco leeway.
