Excerpt: . some good influence on the young and inexperienced. At least it may lead them to reflect on the immutable connexion between virtue and happiness. The subject of this story was not indeed rewarded by long life. But in this age will it be maintained that long life is the greatest of blessings? This is a topic, on which I shall not enlarge; but I will only say for myself, which I do-most sincerely, that I would not have added a year to my son s life by an habitual and allowed indulgence in a single vice. The history of my son s life is very simple and it may be told very briefly. He was born on the 15th January, 1810, was graduated at the University in Cambridge in 1828, and then engaged in the study of medicine. This he did under my...
