The meaning of which is foreign to many people and special to only a select few. The personification of true love is giving all of your-self to another thing or living creature. The process of surrendering all you can offer, the hope is by doing so, love is returned when touching and experiencing the invisible emotion that becomes magical when receiving.Love. I remember a friend who always needed to be in a relationship, it was a must to have someone he could dance with in the land of love letters. He wanted to have at his fingertips intimacy with a woman of truth. I recall telling him, it was not the person he was in love with but Love. The analogy which would suffice is the drug addict getting their fix when getting high. It s not that they want it; it s the overwhelming need to have it. It takes you to another level, igniting a natural high and emotional boost that cannot be matched, and producing an occasion in which you are connected with the life line of Amor. The excitement of awakening to a new day and knowing you are in love. Blissful euphoria! Internally hoping this time you have met the one. There is a sense of unmistakable beauty when one thinks of love. What about belezas cara (beauties face)? Paralyzed. Eyes passing looks make for stuck in time. Then words that shine in the back of the memory mind. Just to see her one more second is hard to find. Then from a man to a boy, or is it a boy to man? As we roll around between...
