Original publisher: Washington, DC : Presidents Advisory Council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, 2010 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)648147299 Subject: Federal aid -- United States -- Citizen participation. Excerpt: . . . sECTION A: Economic Recovery and Domestic Poverty INTRODUCTION Every dayAin every part of AmericaAfaith-based and neighborhood organizations are serving the most vulnerable members of our Nation in both profound and ordinary ways. Faith-and community-based social service providers are an integral part of our Nations fabric. They provide warmth, food, housing, job training, mentoring, and hope to millions in every State, city, and town across America. The impact of these organizations is enormous, whether funded by private or public dollars. For example, one of eight people living in poverty received services and support from Catholic Charities. The United Way has 1, 279 offices located in every State and virtually every congressional district and works with 37, 300 partner agencies across the country. The Jewish Federations of North America represent 157 Jewish Federations, which raise and distribute nearly 3 billion annually for social welfare, social services, and educational needs, through a network of agencies that also receive over...
