Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mikki Rogers is a small-town waitress with aspirations of one day becoming the restaurant manager. She is also hiding a very big secret, one which gives her a strong aversion to alcohol. She handles life the best way she knows: pouring herself into servitude to her job family and church. By making everyone else happy, she tries to attain happiness for herself personally. Everything goes fairly smoothly until Sean Green re-enters her life. Sean Green is Mikki s old high school friend and ex-military with secrets of his own. The single reason he chose to join the Army was due to his family dynamics. He was adopted but did not find out until his senior year of high school. To deal with all of his conflicting emotions, Sean begins to drink with his army buddies. He continues this into his civilian life, forgetting all about the faith he once had; a faith he thought was too shaken to recover. When old hurts, alcohol and emotions collide, God takes over in a very powerful way. He works in His own time, using His people to help both Mikki ans Sean. Then they can begin to reconstruct their friendship through careful steps of faith, learning and healing.
